Educational Disclosure Policy

This meeting is being provided through an educational partnership between Corexcel and The Society of Thoracic Surgeons. Nursing Contact Hours and Perfusionist credit via the American Board of Cardiovascular Perfusion (ABCP) will be offered.

Corexcel is approved as a provider of continuing nursing education, California provider #CEP 13687. Corexcel is approved as a provider of continuing nursing professional development through the Florida Board of Nursing, provider #50-452, and reports completions to CE Broker.

It is Corexcel's policy to ensure independence, objectivity, and scientific rigor in all programming. In compliance with the California and Florida Boards of Nursing and ABCP, Corexcel requires that faculty disclose all financial relationships with commercial interests within the past 12 months.

Receiving Continuing Education Credit

Access the online evaluation at <https://www.corexcel.com/sts/>. In order to receive a certificate, you must complete an evaluation. You must complete the evaluation at one time; you cannot leave and return to the place you last commented. You will not receive CE credit for any session unless the online evaluation is completed. Participants may choose to claim Nursing Contact Hours, Perfusionist CEUs, or a Certificate of Attendance.

Requirements for Contact Hours

To receive continuing education credit, you must watch all on-demand and live content, then evaluate all presentations in a specific session. Please refer to the credit designation below:

- Don't forget to view all on-demand content and live content prior to completing your evaluations.
- You must complete the evaluation at one time; you cannot leave and return to the place you last commented.
- Deadline to claim credit is Friday, December 26, 2025.
